Tickets will go on sale on Monday for the Christmas disco. You can buy them on the gate at pick-up, or they will be available from the office. Tickets cost £1 each and are available to both pupils and parents/carers. There will be delicious hot food, home-made cakes, sweets, a disco make-over area, and, of course, you can visit Father Christmas in his grotto.

We will also be having a "Lean and Dabb" dance competition (don't worry- the children know what it is!!), so get practicing at home, prizes will be awarded for the best dancers.

Universal permission slips

Thanks to everyone who has returned the universal permission slip that will cover the whole year. We hope that this will cut down on your admin time and ours. If there is a big trip, or one that involves any additional risk, an individual slip will be issued. Information letters will still go out. Many thanks.
