Summer fair- June 29th 4-6pm; Meeting Tuesday 13th for helpers, 9am

The Summer Fair is fast approaching. This event depends on parent and carer support. If you have any time you can spare to help make this a massive success, please come to the meeting on Tuesday. Remember that the next two Fridays are own clothes days in exchange for bringing in items for the Tombola. Next week it is tinned food, and the week after it is sweet stuff.

Last weeks attendance:

Congratulations to Year 6 with best attendance this week
Overall school attendance this week: 96.83%

Book Club - Fantastic turnout

On Wednesday, Years 3-6 enjoyed their first Book Club together, welcoming parents and staff members too. Refreshed with lemonade, fruit and sweet treats, the children analysed the compelling picture book The Mysteries of Harris Burdick, having learnt about its mysterious and intriguing history from Mr Wenders' office! Each group had a picture that they had to compose a story for...a fantastic start to this year's Writing Week that is coming up in a few weeks. Well done to all the children who participated; it was a fantastic afternoon!

Leavers- Ms Caesar and Ms Blackshaw

As you will have noticed, Ms Caesar and Ms Blackshaw are both expecting. Ms Caesar will be leaving at the end of term, and Ms Blackshaw at Half Term in October. Both teachers are such an integral part of the school. They will be missed... until they come back, of course.

Ramadan

A reminder that the school needs to be notified if any children are fasting so that we can help with the long and hot days.

Education news: Education Minister retains her seat.

Justine Greening, who visited Ashburnham Community School earlier this year, narrowly holds her seat of Putney. Greg Hands, MP for Chelsea and Fulham also held his seat.

Staff Training

This week staff had training on addressing emotive issues with pupils, such as the recent events in London and Manchester.
